Malabar is a CG animation studio, created in Buenos Aires, Argentina in 2001. We work in the production of animations for advertising, films and TV, specializing in the design and character animation. Also, we are focus on the development of series and projects for kids, with a design and direction team that carries out the creative process. Currently we are in the production of the series Minimalitos (season 3) and in the making of the pilot episode for the series Mati and Rocco.
